Military School at Turciarsky Svaty Martin

50X1-HUM

1. A school for non-commissioned officers and communications troops is located in the Stefanik barracks in the northern part of the town of Turciansky Svätý Martin to the right of the road from Vrútky.
2. The Commandant of the school is Staff Captain Bedrich Sramo. The Security Officer is Captain (fnu) Kucera. There are about 1,200 students, who are organized into six or seven companies.
3. The Stefanik barracks contain lecture rooms, telephones, telephone exchanges and teletype machines. Before 1950 the school was called "vyberova skola", and those who completed it successfully were sent to an officers' school for reserve training. The N.C.O.'s course begins in January each year and lasts for six months.

Military School in Vak<sup>2</sup>

5. About 300 to 400 pupils are sent from the "vyberova skola" at Turciansky Svätý Martin to the military school at Vlk., and others come there from Brno, Prague and Kosice. This school is controlled by the SDZ - Skola Dostoyniku v Zalozě (School for Reserve Officers). Those who complete the course are given the rank of 2nd Lieutenant (podporucik) and serve an additional year before being put into the officers reserve. It is not necessary to have passed a university entrance examination in order to enter the school.
